2005-06 SEASON REVIEW

FIVE CRUSADERS HONORED

Following the 2005-06 season, five Madonna women's basketball players earned awards from the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference. Senior Sarah Thomson and sophomore Martina Franklin were named Second Team All-WHAC and senior Lydia Prusinowski earned Third Team All-WHAC honors. Thomson, a native of Roseville, Michigan, averaged 11.3 points and 8.0 rebounds per game in her senior campaign. Franklin averaged 10.3 points and 6.8 rebounds per game, while Prusinowski ended her senior season with averages of 9.0 points and 3.9 rebounds per contest. Junior guard Stephanie Childs was named to the WHAC All-Defensive team after averaging 1.6 steals per game. Sophomore Kassi Jacob was named to the WHAC Champions of Character team. Jacob, a native of Gaylord, Michigan, averaged 2.3 points per game for the Crusaders.

CRASHING THE BOARDS

Madonna turned out to be one of the top rebounding teams in the nation last season. The Crusaders owned the top spot in the conference in total rebounds (1,337). At the end of last season, the Crusaders were ranked sixth overall in the nation in offensive rebounds per game (16.8) and sixth in the nation in total rebound margin (7.9). The Crusaders were also eighth in the country in total rebounds per game, pulling down an average of 43.1 rebounds in each outing.

GETTING IT DONE WITH THE D

In the last three seasons, Madonna has been steadily improving on the defensive end of the floor, allowing only 62.3 points per game in 2005-06. The Crusaders have improved their defense by allowing almost eight less points per game over the last three years.

Sarah Thomson and Martina Franklin both racked up over 300 points last year, with Thomson leading the team with 350 points and Franklin scoring 319. Junior guard Stephanie Childs scored 278 points, while senior Lydia Prusinowski posted 215 points and junior Lindsay Klemmer rounded out the Crusaders 200-plus points efforts with 206 points of her own.

ANOTHER POSTSEASON RUN

With the Crusaders ending their season in the conference tournament semifinals, Madonna posted its second consecutive year with at least reaching the conference semis. Last year, Madonna knocked off number four-seeded Cornerstone, 69-68, before falling to top-seeded Aquinas, 55-43. In the 2004-05 season, Madonna made a run to the conference championship game after defeating Siena Heights, 68-67, and then dropping the conference tournament championship game to Cornerstone, 73-51.
